DOMESTIC NEWS. Blaine's Triumphal Tour. Mary's (W. Va.), October 7th .- After reviewing the procession at Parkersburg last evening Mr. Blaine, by special request, went up to Marietta, O., to attend a meet-"You may have abundant success"

ing, when it came up from Parkersburg. IN WEST VIRGINIA AGAIN. Canton (O.), October 7th.-About noon the train arrived at Wheeling, and there were about 1,000 people at and around the depot, who cheered Blaine as he came out and by a body of Plumed Knights. The Chairman of the meeting was H. H. Heard, who has been until quite recently a Democrat. There were a great many ladies in the audience. Blaine was very warmly "Emaciated!!!"
And scarcely able to walk. Now I am received, and made a short speech, in which he again presented the protective tariff as the leading issue of the campaign.

> RETURN TO OHIO. From the meeting his carriage was again scorted through Wheeling and across the river to Bridgeport, on the Ohio side, his private car having been transferred in the nean time. All Bridgeport was out to see him. After a few words of thanks and encouragement to the young men of the clubs that had escorted him, he bowed to the crowd and entered his car, whereupon the train started for Canton. Stops were made at Mayward, Flushing, Freeport, Urichsville, New Philadelphia, Canal, Dover and Massillon. At each of these places there was a wildly enthusiastic crowd, and at each Blaine appeared on the rear platform and spoke briefly, acknowledging the compliment paid him and writing the imcompliment paid him, and urging the importance of the tariff question. The cheering, yelling and general demonstrations were more encouraging and sustained all along the routes this afternoon than on any previous part of Blaine's tour. AT CANTON. About 3 o'clock the train arrived at the Canton end of the day's journey. A large torchlight procession of Plumed Knights and Blaine and Logan Clubs escorted Blaine to the house of Mr. Aultman, one of the leading business men of the city, where he took tea. Then he went down of the leading business men of the city, where he took tea. Then he went down to the speaker's stand, around which several thousand people were assembled. When he appeared upon the stand there was great cheering. From. NEW YORK, October 7th.-Following is Mr. Tilden's response to the Committee of the National Democratic Convention, coneying to him the resolutions of that body: GRAYSTONE, October 6, 1884.

To the Chairman and Gentlemen of the Committee:
I thank you for the kind terms in which you have communicated the resolutions concerning me adopted by the late Democratic National me adopted by the late Democratic National Convention. I share your convictions, that reform in the administration of the Federal Government, which is our great national want, and is indeed essential to the restoration and preservation of the Government itself, can only be achieved through the agency of the Democratic party, and by installing its representative in the Chief Magistracy of the United States. The noble, historical traditions of the Democratic party, the principles on which it was educated and to which it has ever been in the main faithful, of its freedom from corrupt influences which grow up in a prolonged possession of power, and the nature of the elements which constitute it—all contribute to qualify it for that mission. The opposite characteristics and con-

boundaries of the Republic and laid the founda-tion of all our national greatness, while it pre-served the limitations imposed by the Constitu-tion, and maintained a simple, pure system of domestic administration. On the other hand, the Republican party has always been domi-nated by principles which favor legislation for the benefit of particular classes at the ex-pense of the body of the people. It has become deeply tainted with abuses which naturally grow during a long possession become deeply tainted with abuses which naturally grow during a long possession of unchecked power, especially in a period of civil war and false finance. The patriotic and virtuous elements in it are now unable to emancipate it from the sway of selfish interests which subordinate public duty to personal greed. The most hopeful of the best citizens it contains despair of its amendment, except through its temporary, expulsion from power. It has been boastingly asserted by a modern Massachusetts statesman, struggling to reconcile himself and his followers to their Presidential candidate, that the Republican party contains a disproportionate share of the wealth, the culture and the intelligence of the country. The unprincipled Grafton, when taunted by James the Second with his personal want of conscience, answered, "That's true; but I belong to a party that has a great deal of conscience." Such reasoners forget that the same claim has been made in all ages and countries by the defenders of old wrongs against new reforms. It was alleged by the Tories of the American revolution of old wrongs against new reforms. It was alleged by the Tories of the American revolution against the patriots of that day; it was repeated against Jefferson, and atterwards against Jackson, and it is alleged by the conservatives against those who in Eugland are now endeavers.

that the Democratic, more readily than the Re-publican party, can be molded to the support of reform measures which involves a sacrifice of selfish interests. The indispensable necessity the great executive offices of the country. This, in my judgment, can only be accomplished by the election of the Democratic candidates for President and Vice-President. SAMUEL J. TILDEN. To R. H. SALT LAKE, October 7th .- The Mormons closed their Conference to-day. John Taylor, in an address, read what purported to be statistics from papers published by notable Eastern authorities, showing the horribly immoral condition of society in the New England States. Resuming, Tay lor said: The people described in the statements read are those who are so horrified at the immoral condition of Utah, and from them come our would-be reformers. His purpose in presenting the statements in relation to infanticide and other crimes was to exhibit the true character of those who perpetrated them, and to warn the Saints against such characters, some of whom were endeavoring to nsinuate themselves into the society and nouses of the people of God. No such persons could have lot or place among the Saints, and on no consideration could be permitted to enjoy the privileges of the ospel. He warned the officers of the Church against giving "recommends" to enter polygamy and other church ordinances to adulterers, murderers, or either men or women guilty of the unnatural crimes defined in the extracts read. He directed that those guilty of such practices be cut off from the Church, and requested that all who favored this view should say The response was a shout of ayes" that seemed almost to make the nilding tremble. TO THE LADIES!

MISS M. NOONAN. (LATE OF CHICAGO,) Has located herself at No. 700 Ninth st., Where she intends to carry on a FIRST-CLASS DRESSMAKING ESTABLISHMENT, and re-spectfully solicits the patronage of the Ladies of Sacramento and vicinity. 08-islw* THE LADIES' CHORAL SOCIETY HAS RESUMED REHEARSALS AT FIRE-men's Hall, Eighth street, between J and K, on THURSDAY AFTERNOONS, at 2 o'clock, and will present at their First Public Entertainment the light and pleasing Cantataz, "Cinderella" and "The Isle of Song," by Abt, with full

To the Citizens of Sacramento.

As MUCH AS WE DISLIKE TO MAKE EX-planations through the public print of our personal or business acts, we deem it due to our-selves at this time to make a clear, candid and orchestral accompaniment. Ladies desiring to join the Society are requested to leave their names at L. K. HAMMER'S Music Store, 820 J st.

concise statement of our connection with the slaughter-house nuisance that has been brought so prominently before the public during the past few months. At the outset it can be said of us that we have lived in this city for upwards of a quarter of a century, and have ever been re garded as straightforward and law abiding citi-zens; have never stood in the way of any needed improvements, but have been found in the front rank of any movement that had for its object the future health or prosperity of Sacramento. Our slaughter-houses, the unjust condemnation of which has led to so much unfriendly discussion, were erected very many years ago, at a time when the residence portion of the city was all west of Twentieth street. Last spring, long before the rains had ceased, we, in connection with others in the same business, were notified that our slaughter-houses and corrals must be cleaned. We invited the Health Officer to visit the premises, asked him his advice, what was expected of us, and of our future intentions expected of us, and of our future intentions, which were the removal of our hogs from within the city limits, the filling up of our yards with sand and gravel, the carting off daily of the blood, offal and matter of any description that was in the least offensive to sight, to smell, or that cou'd be considered deleterious to the health of the community. This statement, made in good faith, was accepted by the Health Officer, the Board of Health and the City Trustees, who have been requested at various times to alse; and, on the contrary, that the yards are clean, sweet, unoffensive, and will compare fa-vorably with those of any other portion of the city. We have been, knowing the extreme vinage is believed to be an effort to break up rom opening a non-Mormon school in the dictiveness of our persecutors, so very careful of our premises that even the water used for washing the slaughter-house floors has been removed. Time and again has the Health Officer moved. The and again has the Health Officer, the members of the Board of Health and the City Trustees visited the premises, and on the occasion of every visit did they declare that the premises were in a cleanly and inoffensive condition, their location in a position which rendered it utterly impossible for the existence of a nuisance such as complained of by LeMay and his supporters. Dr. Cluness, the President of the Board of Health, after two careful inspections, recommended the place as healthy and the Board of Health, after two careful inspections, recommended the place as healthy, and as being kept in excellent condition. Dr. Laine, Dr. Snyder, Dr. Brune, all members of the Board of Health, inspected the premises and joined in their President's report. Not later than a week ago. Trustees Nielsen and Gutenberger, in order to satisfy themselves upon this much-mooted question, rode out to the slaughter-houses and gave them a close and careful inspection. They claimed then, and openly asserted that as City Trustees it was not their intention to drive such an industry from the city, and expressed much surprise at the statements of the agitators of this unheard of raid upon the individual rights this unheard of raid upon the individual right of law abiding citizens. Their observations conclusively proved to them that the various yarns that had been from time to time laid before them were not in the interest of the welfare the city, or the protection of general health, but were in the line of persecution. They openly declared that from the location of the slaughter-houses and the residence of Mr. LeMay, that owing to the direction of the valling winds if the slaughter-houses ever so offensive not one single would ever reach the olfactory nerve pre-were odor the LeMay premises. When these ren com-bined out of a spirit of malignity to persecute us, they brought into their employ a lawyer, Grove ull accord with the LeMay combination, and h was not slow in finding an unheard of ordinanc which said that no slaughter-houses should be maintained within the city limits. This unjus maintained within the engineers. This unjustion ordinance, that had been slumbering for up-wards of fourteen years, was touched by the wand or this eminent legal light, awoke from its Rip Van Winkle sleep, and used for our per-secution. Unjust, unfair, unmanly, not willing to allow us to make a statement, to even be heard their every act has been characterized by a low cunning that would do credit to an embryo law-yer, but is a line of action that would be scorned by any man learned in the legal lore. We knew nothing of the existence of such an ordinance. It seems to have been passed years ago, for what purpose the records do not show, and was never attempted to be enforced. General Hart, trusting to the good judgment of Judge Armstrong asked him in regard to the constitutionality of the ordinance. He replied that it had been passed upon by the Supreme Court, who claimed that it was good law, but much as he respected that it was good law, but much as he respected their opinion he must say that his own is that it is unconstitutional. The Board of Trustees informed us that they would pass an amended ordinance that would allow us to remain where we are, under certain restrictions, provided the Board of Heaith would recommend it. The matter was reported to the Board of Health, and received their hearty approval and indorsement. They even went so far as to write, unsolicited, certain certificates recommending the proposed certain certificates recommending the proposed action, and the petition for the same was signed not by people who lived in the city remote from the slaughter-houses, but those of the immediate neighborhood. When Dr. Cluness wrote his recommendation to the Board requesting them to grant our petition, we remarked that we were sorry to put him to so much trouble. His reply came promptly, "I want to do what is right." Before the Board Monday he, in substance, sai it that his previous statements concerning the condition of the premises were untrue, and tool a back track. The fact is, the Doctor came to

The Defense of Puget Sound.

VANCOUVER, October 7th.—To-day a Board of Officers, Major John I. Rodgers, of the First United States Artillery, President, leaves for Puget Sound, to examine the military reserves set apart by the Government for garrison purposes. They will examine every military reserve from Olympia to British Columbia, especially Deception Pass, at Fidalgo Island, making an estimate of the cost of fortifications and the garrison buildings for the accommodation of troops to be quartered at said garrisons. General Miles intends to post his command just where it is most needed, and will prepare for the defense of Puget Sound against the navies of the world.

The Doctor is no doubt aware of the fact that will prepare for the defense of Puget Sound against the navies of the world.

The Doctor is no doubt aware of the fact that purpose, and not for feeding and fattening, and their penswere looked after with the medical profession here.

The Defense of Puget Sound.

VANCOUVER, October 7th.—To-day a Board of Officers, Major John I. Rodgers, of the sound a back track. The fact is, the Doctor cannet to our place, as would a detective, early Saurday morning, when we were asleep. The slaughter house is thoroughly cleansed every evening immediately after the slaughtering is done; but on Fridays they have a great deal of work, owing to the fact that they have to slaughter for two days, and some cases, as in this one, when their work lasts till well long into the night, the cleaning is postponed until the next morning, and all they have to do that day is to clean up. If the Doctor's visit had been an hour later, or at any reasonable hour of the day, he would have found the premises were untrue, and took a back track. The fact is, the Doctor is ableted the night the louse is thoroughly cleansed every evening immediately after the slaughtering to shouch the hught, the cleaning is postponed until the next morning, and all they have to do that day is to clean up. ESTABLISHED OCTOBER 8, 1874.

To-day rounds out the first ten years in the existence of our business.

From an early advertisement, possibly the first, we copy: "One Price." "All Goods Marked in Plain Figures." "Square to a Cent." "Nothing More Asked, Nor Nothing Less Taken than the Price so Marked." Thus the fundamental principles of the business remain now as at first. Time has not abated anything of their letter or spirit, and it is probably due to the protective influence of these principles, constantly exerted, that trade has -so increased.

In other respects the changes of ten years have been many. Each year has seen an increase of business, a widening of assortments, a broadening of aims. Each year we believe has witnessed greater endeavors to bring our business nearer the ideal of what a perfect store should be.

It is said, "As the child, so the mar." Certain it is that the purposes and results which have characterized the business in the years of its early growth are the ones which naturally will mark it in the future. If the store has been useful hitherto in lowering prices and multiplying advantages in behalf of the consumer, so it is likely to continue to be, although, perhaps, in new channels and a widened sphere.

Coincidently the ten years just passed have seen the reinlargement of our House ten times. The most important and largest of these improvements was but recently completed.

The stock to fill the new quarters has been selected with all the benefits arising from past experience, and the active efforts of three buyers in the Eastern and Western markets.

Thus we believe purchasers of Fall goods will find that the advantages presented now are as signal as at any time in the past career of the business.
